What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your computer or device to monitor how you use a website or an app.

Different types of cookies are used to do different things. These include letting you navigate between different pages on a website efficiently, remembering preference you have given and helping us identify ways to improve your overall site experience. Others are used to provide you with advertising which is more tailored to your interests, or to measure the number of site visits and the most popular pages users visit.

This policy sets out the types of cookies we use when you use our website.

Are there different types of cookies?

Yes, there are different types of cookies. Cookies are divided into "first party" and "third party" cookies, and "session" and "persistent" cookies.

"First party" and "third party" cookies

Cookies can be set and controlled by the operator of a website such as Insurance Factory Limited for this website (known as a 'first party cookie') or a third party such as Facebook, for example to display advertisements and social sharing features (known as a 'third party cookie').

"Session cookies" and "persistent cookies"

Cookies can also be divided into "session cookies" and "persistent cookies":

- Session cookies are only there when you are on our website. When you leave our website the cookie is removed; and
- Persistent cookies which exist on your computer or device until a fixed future date.

How do we use cookies?

We use cookies to improve our website and to help provide you with a good user experience. The type of information we collect may include your internet service provider's name and details about the pages you accessed.

As detailed in the Privacy Policy, Insurance Factory Limited may disclose data collected from cookies, such as visitor trends, to third parties, in an anonymous form, for research and statistical purposes, and to help us optimise our websites and the targeting of advertisements.

From time to time Insurance Factory Limited may also analyse IP addresses, user agent strings or other anonymous data sources.

Third party suppliers

We work with third-party suppliers who place cookies on your device and report on "web analytics" information. Where such information is made available to us, we have listed these cookies below.

In addition, Insurance Factory Limited engages third party advertisers and advertising networks to place targeted advertisement cookies. This means that data collected through these cookies will be shared with such parties in order that they can select and serve relevant adverts to you and others. We do not disclose information about identifiable individuals to our advertisers, but we may provide them with aggregate information about our users to assist them in performing this service. We may also use such aggregate information to help advertiser reach the kind of audience we want to target.

Please note that although the use of data by Insurance Factory Limited is covered by this policy, in addition the use of third party cookies is covered by third party cookie policies, which we have referred to in the following tables, alternatively they are available on the relevant company's website.

How can you control the use of cookies?
